

FISCAL NOTE

HB 634 - SB 814

March 30, 2005

SUMMARY OF BILL: Amends the statute relating to dentist license renewals by increasing the amount of time allowed for dentists, dental hygienists, and dental assistants to pay their registration fee without penalty from 60 days to 90 days after the due date of the registration fee; the fee imposed for any license under the alternative interval is proportionate to the annual fee and is rounded off to the nearest $.50; and would add a disclaimer stating that if any provision of this amendment is held invalid, other provisions of the law would not be affected.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

Increase State Expenditures – Not Significant Increase State Revenues – Not Significant

Assumption:

- The Board of Dentistry would not incur a significant increase of expenditures for the proposed amendments to dentist license renewals.
- The Board of Dentistry, by statute, is self supporting such that revenues equal expenditures.
